

Joint Meeting DMV-PTM statistics

Number of participants registered in the system (as of September 17) : 711

Participants come from more than 30 different countries.

Members of Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań: 81

Registered members of Polish Mathematical Society: around 150

Men registered: 588

Women registered: 123

In total 485 talks had been reported and they were presented in 39 parallel sessions. The least number of lectures in one session: 6, the largest: 20, on average: 12 lectures during one session during all 3 days.

All together there were 245 hours of lectures, on average around 3 hours each day in every session.

370 talks of 25 minutes and more than 100 lectures of 50 minutes each were given.

The Conference record holder became a participant who presented 4 lectures in total and there were around 20 persons who presented more than one talk.

Declared to participate in one session: more than 360 persons.

Exactly in two sessions: around 140 persons.

The rest in at least 3 sessions: around 200 persons.

The record holder signed up for 12 sessions.

On each day of the Meeting at least 550 persons declared their participation (according to the dates of stay), with the maximum on Thursday reaching around 650 persons.